The Three Kings

PREPARE THEIR VISIT TO MIJAS

Melchor, Gaspar & Baltasar will arrive by helicopter on Sunday the 5th, to parade through the three urban areas of Mijas

Carmen Martín

This Sunday the 5th the children will live a day full of excitement with the arrival of the Three Kings from the Orient. Melchor, Gaspar and Baltasar will arrive in the municipality by helicopter, landing loaded with gifts and 6,000 kilos of soft sweets at four in the afternoon at the Regino Hernández Sports City. Half an hour before the doors of the enclosure will open so that the 'Mijeños' can access the stands; on this occasion, and due to the expansion works on the sports centre, they will do so through María Zambrano Avenue (that is, from the annexed football field).

SAFETY COMES FIRST

The Councilor for Festivities, Tamara Vera (PSOE), placed special emphasis on the security device that will surround the Kings on Sunday the 5th.

Therefore, the Local Police and Civil Protection will be present at the parades and there will be an ambulance closing each of the three. In addition, "as in previous occasions and for security reasons, only a maximum of 15 children can ride on each float, who have previously registered at the Citizen Assistance points of the Town Hall and have the authorization of their parents or guardians. It should be remembered that these children will also be identified with bracelets and be insured", added the councillor.

Vera also called for citizen collaboration to ensure a safe parade and thanked the involvement of volunteers and the different party commissions, as well as the municipal company Mijas Comunicación "for the human and technical deployment that will be carried out" to broadcast the three parades, live to all households.
